Text 1: f. 1

Title: Calendar

Language(s): Latin

Notes: Latin text, probably a list, followed by a 7x6 grid, probably containing calendrical information. The columns are labeled at the bottom of the grid with the dominical letters "B C D E F G A" and the right side of the grid has the numbers "4 2 3 4 4" with the final row left blank. It is likely that this list and grid were associated not with the text on the reverse, but with the book in which this page served as a flyleaf or binding material.

Other Decoration: 23-line initial I in the left margin, pen and ink decoration. Notarial signature at the bottom also begins with a decorated pen and ink initial I.

Notes: The top has been trimmed, truncating some of the letters on the top line but not enough to obscure their meaning. The right edge has been folded and worn so that some of the letters have become illegible. In the lower left corner there is a notarial sign: a fleur de lis resting on a crescent which is resting on a pillar or trunk with two small projections, one on each side. The pillar or trunk is set on a pedestal with two tiers. Inside the bottom tier is written "Andreas Hoppenrade," the name of the notary. There is a Union Theological Seminary stamp on the lower right corner and a modern note in pencil in the left margin giving the date as Thursday, 18 September, 1488. Latin

Title: Donation

Language(s): Latin

Incipit: Andreas Hoppenrade, notary of the diocese of Brandenburg, records a gift of property from Lawrence Welsow to Ambrose Smedo or Smedt.

Notes: Dating clause in first line, repeated in the last line. The location is described as the chancery of a castle, but the name of the castle has been obscured by damage to the right side of the page. The witnesses are John Benedictus and John Molenbeke.
